EXPERIENCE PINE MOUNTAIN WITH CAPTÛRE WINEMAKER, SAM TEAKLE

Captûre Wines

Be one of the first to experience Pine Mountain from Captûre winemaker Sam Teakle's perspective! Grape growers describe the view from Pine Mountain-Cloverdale Peak like islands in the clouds on mornings when much of Sonoma County is swathed in a silvery blanket of clouds.

Among Sonoma County's newest viticultural areas, Pine Mountain-Cloverdale Peak is one of the highest and most remote. Comprising 4,600 acres, with just 230 acres planted, the AVA (or wine region) was approved in 2011. The Captûre Pine Mountain Vineyard sits at the very top of the Pine Mountain-Cloverdale Peak AVA. This vineyard ranges between 2,526'-2,866' making it the highest elevation Sauvignon Blanc vineyard in the United States. Being part of the Mayacamas Mountain range lends a rugged and wild nature to the vineyard that is still being explored by their winemaking and vineyard teams.

You and three guests (four people) will start your day by meeting Sam at the new Spire Alexander Valley Estate that is nestled in the rolling hills of Alexander Valley. Here you will get the opportunity to taste through the Captûre wines one on one! Then follow Sam up to Pine Mountain for an exclusive adventure filled tasting of the Captûre Pine Mountain wines at the very peak of Pine Mountain.
